Academic Year 2018/19

Issue No: 23

Date 15th March 2019

Hello from Mr West

Since its launch in 1988, Red Nose Day has been part of popular culture. It's a day, every two years, when people across the country (and it certainly was in full force at Montpelier today) get together and raise money for people who are less fortunate than ourselves, with money raised spent by Comic Relief supporting some of the poorest and most disadvantaged people in the UK and around the world. Our day was full of laughter. It started with an array of red clothing descending on the school as the start of the day was upon us, continued with a sea of deely-boppers, red noses and amazing hairstyles. A dance-a-thon was well underway before the children had even picked their lunch and we had enough jokes flying around to keep the Christmas cracker industry in business for the foreseeable future. To have been a part of such a day was a privilege and I would like to take a moment to say thank you for supporting our charity team. Have a great weekend.

BOOK
THE WEEK

The third novel in the Cogheart series.

When a travelling skycircus arrives in Brackenbridge, Lily and Robert can't wait to step aboard... But there's something sinister about the hybrid children who appear as part of the act. And before Lily and Robert can do anything, they're captured by shadowy figures and whisked off in the mysterious flying circus to somewhere far, far away...

If you have shared a book with your child and would like to recommend it, please email me. daniellejones@mpsplymouth.net

Year 1 Paignton Zoo

Year 1 had a fantastic day out at the zoo today. We saw lots of animals and learnt many interesting facts. They were all superstars walking around the zoo today. I'm sure they will sleep well tonight!
