MKC Heroes

MKC heroes children from across the city have thought about ideas that they can do to help them during this time when they may have a family member working away from home or working really long hours and they don't see them as much as they would like. You may like to have a look at these ideas and try some of them. If you have any photos of things you have been doing that you are happy to share you can email them to me janegilbert@msplymouth.net and I will forward them to be put on the MKC heroes' website.
